TWO-YEAR UNIVERSITY REQUIREMENT

Note: Graduates of the Diploma of Acupuncture, Herbology, and Practitioner of Oriental Medicine Programs who have met the requirements of the College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists (CTCMA) of BC, which includes 60 university credits of liberal arts or sciences, will be eligible to sit for the Canadian national registration exam to become Registered Acupuncturist, Herbalist, and Practitioner of TCM in the province of British Columbia. Based on reciprocity agreements, this distinction permits registrants to practice acupuncture across Canada.

CTCMA Bylaw Section 48 (1) (a.1) effective December 28, 2009

"successful completion of not less than two (2) years of liberal arts or sciences study (comprised of at least 60 credits) in an accredited college of chartered/approved university acceptable to the registration committee,"

Effective December 28, 2009: ALL applicants for registration are required to fulfill this requirement.

Previously a similar requirement was included in Schedule E; it applied only to BC students and included equivalent courses or 'transferable' credits. The current requirement applies to ALL applicants and refers only to university courses in liberal arts/sciences.

No applicants will be accepted to write the CTCMA competency examinations without this requirement. All applicants for registration must complete 2 years of university education before applying for registration.

- BC Graduates and Students – submit transcript from accredited college or university
- Quebec Graduates and Students – Quebec Ministry of Education issues a transcript confirming Diplome d'Etudes Collegiales (DEC). For university admission, these students are normally granted 30 credits of advanced standing, reducing a 120-credit requirement to 90 credits or 6 semesters. Some degrees require additional semesters for completion (ex. B.Eng). Please note the citation on the CEGEP transcript will be:

(Year, i.e. 2000) DEC (Diplome d'Etudes Preuniversitaire)

The Quebec Ministry of Education transcript is preferable to the CEGEP transcript. The CEGEP DES (Diplome d'Etudes Secondaires) is NOT the same as the DEC.

- Other Canadian Provinces – Please provide CTCMA with a transcript from the institution you attended. CTCMA may require you to obtain a basic credential evaluation report from ICES (International Credential Evaluation Services), depending on the courses/institution.
- Outside Canada – Please provide CTCMA with a basic credential evaluation report from ICES.
